

FRIDAY WEATHER STATEMENT

The Catholic Schools Office has been in consultation with weather and civic officials, as well as our neighboring public school systems in regards to forecasted inclement weather conditions on Friday, January 21. At this time diocesan officials are announcing that all Catholic schools in the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux will be OPEN tomorrow.

Please continue to monitor our diocesan and Catholic school social media sites, emails, and your respective school communications systems for additional information and updates should they be necessary.

We are aware of a survey currently being circulated to our school employees and parents. Please know that this survey was not originated by the Diocese of Houma-Thibodaux or its Catholic Schools Office.